Youth Narcotic Arrests Skyrocket In Upland

Narcotic arrests involving youths in Upland have increased alarmingly in the past six months according to a report received this week from Police Chief John Wessely.

In making a comparison, the police chief noted that there were four local narcotic arrests in the first six months of 1967 as compared with 61 arrests for the same period this year. Previous to 1967 Upland averaged one narcotic arrest a year.

"In previous years, arrests for involvement with hard narcotics and marijuana for the most part concerned only those who were already criminally minded," Wessely stated. "The police are now dealing in many cases with intelligent youths from fine middle class and upper class homes," Wessely said.

According to the report from the police, every effort is made to constructively work with the local youths and young adults arrested for possession or use of narcotics.

For those under 18, a report is made to the juvenile authorities, who then work if possible with the youths and their parents in an effort to discourage any further traffic in drugs.

Adults face a felony police charge which can result in a jail sentence.

According to Wessely, the problem is one that can only be licked or controlled by the full cooperation of parents with police working together in a sincere effort to guide the youths away from the destructive influence of those who would make money by preying on the young.

Upland is not the only city facing these problems. . . In a recent testimony before the House Subcommittee on Appropriations, J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation stated that arrests of persons under 18 years of age made up 23 per cent of the total police arrests throughout the nation in 1966. Young people were involved in 33 per cent of the arrests in suburban communities, in 23 per cent of those in the cities and in 20 per cent of the arrests in rural areas.

He pointed out that arrests of persons under 18 years of age increased 59 per cent during the period 1960 to 1966. This figure takes on added significance when it is considered that the population in the 10 to 17 year age group has risen but 19 per cent during this same 7 year period.

With police arrests of persons under 18 years of age rising three times as fast as the population growth of this age group, Hoover felt that there is a factor which is significantly influencing the progressive rise of crime in this country.

Hoover expressed sincere concern over the grave prospect of the multiplying number of full-time adult criminals in the years immediately ahead.

Local Lawyers Plan Relocation

The law firm of Maroney, Demchuk, Ziebarth and Brandt, located on Second Avenue, Upland, is in the process of making plans to relocate offices to the Southeast corner of Euclid and F St.

A public hearing is scheduled before the planning commission, Thursday, July 25 at 7:30 p.m. in the council chambers to consider a request for a conditional use permit allowing the lawyers to establish a professional office building in the planned unit civic center.

According to Donald Maroney, one of the law partners, he and his associates plan to remodel the contemplated large two story Old English home on the premises into a more fashionable Tudor type residence.

At present, the men are experiencing a space problem, which would be alleviated by the move to Euclid Avenue. The new building would provide twice as much floor space and four times as much basement space for the keeping of records and supplies. A parking lot would also be built.

The law firm hopes to have the project completed by September.

Work Progresses On Schedule On Needed School Facility

Upland Junior High School students and teachers are in for a treat this Fall, when the newly renovated school opens its doors for an expected 630 enrollment.

Every effort has been made to make the once condemned structure into a building worthy of the adjectives modern, sturdy, bright and up-to-date. Color schemes have been coordinated in the classrooms and shades of coral and green spark the predominate pale yellow.

New buildings added to the existing campus include a completely new structure housing six regular classrooms, two connecting science rooms and two music rooms. A new shower and locker building has been constructed for student physical education purposes.

The existing building, which was condemned under the Field Act, is now almost impossible to recognize from the inside. The large imposing Spanish style gates are still at the front door, but inside these gates visitors enter a completely modernized school.

To the right is the new gym with lowered ceiling and brightly paneled walls and to the left are the administration offices. The offices comprise a mahogany paneled reception room, a principal's office, the assistant principal's office, teacher's work room, nurse's room, remedial room and stock room.

The school can accommodate 750 students in the 19 classrooms, 13 of which are in the older remodeled building. All ceilings have been dropped and an intercom system has been installed.

A library and shop building are added attractions of Upland's new junior high.

One of the most outstanding features of the renovated campus is the open patio courtyard between the old structure and the new building. Students will use this area for various school activities as it lends a "Quad" effect to the campus.

The Upland Elementary school district board of trustees expect the work to be completed in part before August 15 and plans will be made for an Open House early in September.

South of the new building will be a basketball and volleyball court. This area will be blacktopped. West of that area will be seeded for a soccer, softball and football field.

Vern Orum, district superintendent reported this past week that all renovating is on schedule and the "new" school will be open for the anticipated first day of school this Fall.

Upland In Action

New Weekly Feature Of The Upland News

From the office of City Manager Elwin Alder are the following news items of interest to Upland residents.

The Underground Utility Advisory Commission appointed by Mayor George Gibson to study the city council's proposed ordinance to underground existing utility poles met Monday morning at City Hall.

Alder was appointed chairman of the committee and authorized to designate an alternate in his absence. The commission reviewed the past history and background of the utility pole question and members were supplied with a copy of the ordinance.

Members of the commission voted to suggest two additions be made to the existing ordinance and that the ordinance then be adopted by the city council.

The additions call for the engineering department to make a "cost before hearing" study to provide the residents with total cost as well as separate cost information. The second suggested addition calls for the right of a designated city official to disconnect individual service if deemed necessary.

Four swimming pool permits were issued this past week, as well as one permit for the construction of a 3,000 square foot house.

The engineering department is presently setting grade stakes for street improvements on Foothill Boulevard and 12th Avenue. Office work in this department centers around improvements on Mountain Avenue from 7th to Foothill.

On July 1, the Water Department did a land office business with one of the biggest days in its financial history. . . 52 water change orders were processed in one day.

The Fire Department answered 5 grass fire calls, three structural fire calls and six calls for the resuscitator. One of the resuscitator calls involved four small children who had locked themselves in the trunk of a car. No one had a key . . . so the firemen found four little tots in need of oxygen.

The Architectural commission reviewed four requests for new signs on the exteriors of buildings and reviewed plans for a Builders Emporium on the north side of Foothill at Second Avenue. The area is being developed by Ralph Miller and Associates.

The city is building a new shop building on Campus, south of 15th Street. Before the end of the year all public works operations will be centered at this new location.

Town Center Kiosk Weighs Music Plans

UPLAND -- The city is thinking seriously of having "promenade concerts" in the central kiosk downtown on Saturday nights or Sundays.

They would be non-commercial and at first on an experimental basis.

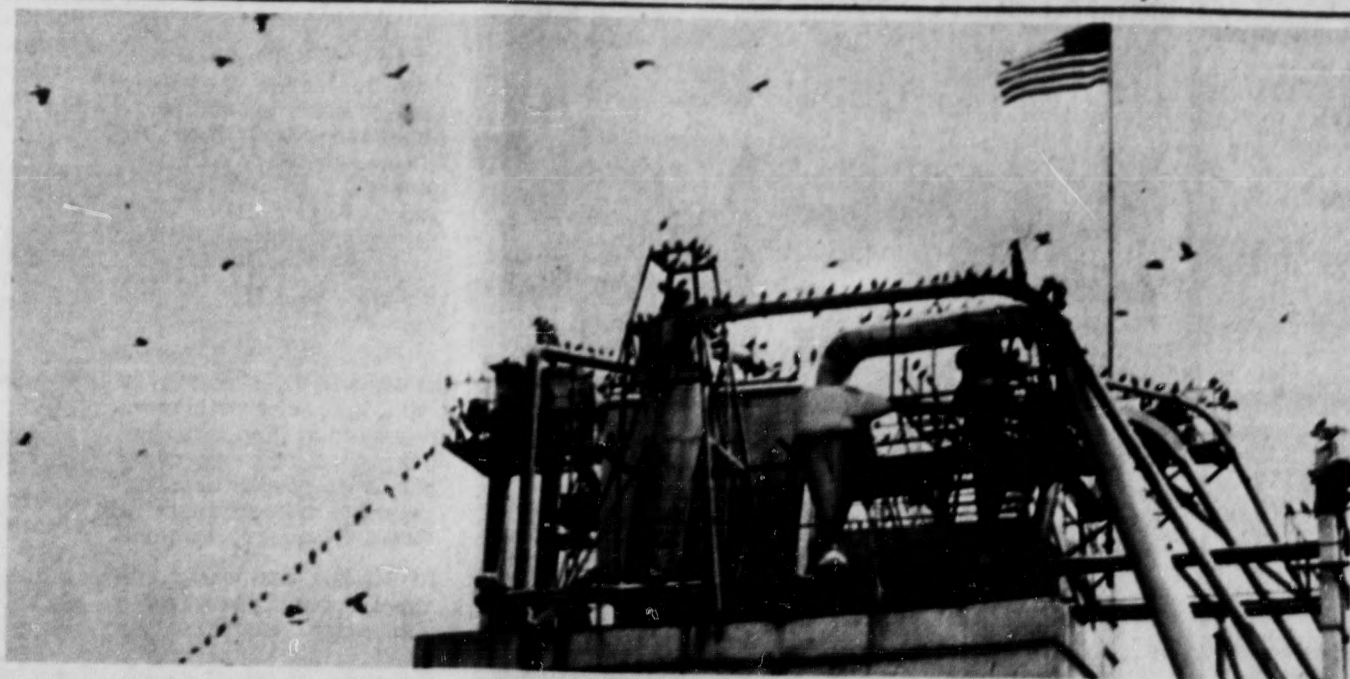

Councilman Ronald Rossitter proposed the concerts "to draw friends and neighbors downtown where they can stroll around listening to music or just sit and talk to friends."

Councilwoman Zella Stone said many persons had told her the Town Center opening over the weekend was the first chance they had had in years to really get together with friends and talk over old times.

Rossitter said the concerts could be staged after all stores are closed. He said a well-known band, such as the Disneyland Dixieland Band, could be hired, or possibly a mariachi group.

The matter was referred to the Parks and Recreation Committee for study.

A BIRDS EYE VIEW OF UPLAND -- Our feathered friends arrived this past week . . . by the hundreds . . . to view the city's new Town Center. They could be seen strung-out gaily singing along the wires and poles of the Upland Feed and Fuel Plant. Apparently they have returned to Capistrano, because the wires are now bare of visitors.

Baseline Branch Librarian Travels; Photographs World

The Howard Kilmurray of Hellman Avenue, Alta Loma, are a pair of "free lance" travelers with a flair; their annual three-week vacations, carefully planned by Mr. Kilmurray, will probably take them around the world.

The Kilmurrays recently returned from their latest jaunt which covered the Scandinavian countries and Russia.

After having seen America, they went to the Caribbean in 1965; it was London, Scotland and Wales in 1966; last year they toured France, Italy, Austria, Switzerland, Germany and Amsterdam.

Both Kilmurrays have been enthusiastic camera bugs for many years, so their travelogues are highly professional. They carefully edit and prepare each set of slides from the many they take; the selection for this year's trip will come from 18 rolls of film each of which contain 36 exposures.

While admittedly not the "souvenir type," Mrs. Kilmurray has nevertheless succumbed to the collector's itch. Her mementos are, however, unique. She brings back from every trip several dolls, each dressed in authentic costume, but she limits herself to costumes representative only of the cities in which they were actually purchased.

Leningrad dolls, for example, were available in native dress from all regions of Russia, so it was necessary to get expert advice concerning the individual doll wearing a Leningrad area costume. Her collection totals approximately 25 figures, a colorful and very personal reminder of far-away places.

Four days in Russia were the only days spent on a prearranged tour, simply because there is no other way one can legally visit the USSR except through the tourist bureau.

The Kilmurrays thought it was one of the most beautiful countries they have seen, and were most impressed with the design of the city of Leningrad.

Chaffey High Dist. Names New Head

UPLAND -- The Chaffey Union High School District board of trustees Monday elected a new president -- for the first time in 11 years.

Named to succeed outgoing president Benjamin P. Allen at the annual re-organizational meeting was an Ontario native, Paul H. Cushing.

It had been rumored that an attempt would be made to oust Allen, not because of any particular dissatisfaction with his leadership but because it was felt the chair should be rotated.

An open fight was avoided when trustee A. Richard Allred moved for a secret nomination and voting system.

The motion passed, and Cushing and Allred were nominated, with the winner getting three votes and the loser two. While the board is bound by law to go through the motions of yearly re-organizational meetings the members apparently have agreed unofficially that the chair will be rotated in the future.

The new president was first elected to the board in 1959 and has served as its vice president every year since except in 1966-67.

Cushing graduated from Chaffey High School in 1933 and received a bachelor of science degree from the University of Oregon in 1940. He has been a partner and manager of Cushing Feed and Seed Co. since 1947.

Allen was first elected to the board in 1956 and served as clerk that year. He has been president since 1957.

Among the board's major accomplishments during Allen's reign were the purchase of five future high school sites, the construction of Ontario, Montclair and Alta Loma High Schools, and the expansion of Upland High.

Allen moved at an early age with his family from his native Kansas to California and has lived at his present address, 3813 Grand Ave., in the Montclair area, since 1912.

In addition to the election of Cushing, the board named Allred vice president and Mrs. Mary B. Hecht, clerk. They also re-appointed Mrs. Lorraine Branson, secretary.

The fifth board member, William C. Draper, was named to represent the board at the semi-annual Trustee Association meetings.

Council Erases Cable Rezoning

UPLAND -- The City Council for the first time in five months, took action in the Dewey Cable rezoning-it put the matter off-calendar.

That means the rezoning won't be put on the agenda again until Cable presents proof to the City Clerk a specific industry will locate in the site.

Cable is asking the zoning change to light industrial for about 40 acres between 13th and 15th Streets just east of Benson Avenue and Cable Airport.

Cable told the council Tuesday he had "lost two more prospects" for the site because of the council's delay in granting the rezoning.

Conductron, the light electronics firm which has figured heavily in the delay because it has made no commitment for the site, has been hit with "internal confusion," according to Cable and may not make up its mind to locate in Upland for six or seven months.

"But," Cable said, "we're still in the running; we'll have to have something for them when they make the offer."

Meantime, City Manager Elwin Alder told councilmen he had received no communication in the last month from any firm wanting to locate in the site.

The rezoning hinges on the first and second reading of an ordinance and Councilman Zella Stone asked, "If we had the first reading, wouldn't that encourage a firm to locate?"

She was referring to a statement by Cable that "no firm in its right mind will make a commitment for the area until it is sure the rezoning will be granted."

Councilmen tossed the idea of approving it on first reading around for awhile then turned thumbs down on it.

Councilman Ronald Rossiter said, "I don't see any point in this continued badgering of the council each month." He moved to put the rezoning off-calendar.

Dennis D. Maust Industrial Arts NDEA Student

GORHAM -- Dennis D. Maust of Upland, California, is one of the twenty men who have been selected from over 250 applicants to participate in the NDEA Institute for Advanced Study in Industrial Arts to be held at Gorham State College, Gorham, Maine, from July 1 to August 9, 1968. The institute is designed to provide its participants an opportunity to prepare and organize teaching materials using a unit approach developed at Gorham, which makes functional the study of industry and technology, particularly in the laboratory of industries. Maust received his bachelor's degree from Bethel College in North Newton, Kansas, in 1964. He is an industrial arts instructor in the Glano Junior High School at Rowland Heights, California.

Police Name Graham

UPLAND -- A member of the Upland Police Department since 1963, Detective Lyle Graham has been appointed to the rank of sergeant, effective July 1.

Graham's appointment was announced by Police Chief John Wessely who said the detective topped all applicants in recent examinations.

The new sergeant holds an associate of arts in police science from Chaffey College and is currently a senior at Cal State, Los Angeles, where he is studying to receive a bachelor of science degree.

Graham, married with four children, was appointed to the detective division in March 1967.

To Build A Shed, You Make Improvements Afar

UPLAND -- Dewey Cable wants to build a shed at the northwest end of Cable Airport.

Only problem is, he has to make corresponding street and curb improvements on the east end of his airport--along Benson Avenue, a half-mile away -- under rules of the building permit.

"Now this is a little silly," said Councilman James Christensen when Cable told the City Council about it Tuesday night.

"Why should a man have to make street improvements a half-mile away and out of sight just to build a shed on his property?"

It was explained it has been a policy of the city for many years, and the law, that whenever a property owner improves his land he must make street improvements.

"It's the only way we get our streets widened," City Manager Elwin Alder said.

However, councilmen were sympathetic to Cable's plight since the law apparently wasn't designed for large pieces of land such as Cable's 400-plus acres.

The council moved to handle the matter administratively, with meetings between Alder and Cable, to see if a solution could be worked out.

$13,496 Worth Of Gold Carpet Ordered For City's Library

UPLAND -- More than 2,000 yards of gold carpeting will be laid in the new library, due to be dedicated Feb. 15.

The City Council Tuesday awarded a $13,496 contract for the carpeting to the Donald M. Hoover Co. of El Monte.

The carpeting, at a little less than $7 a yard, is of a synthetic material highly resistant to stains and scuff marks.

The council also awarded a $6,950 contract to the Moyers Construction Co. of LaVerne for installation of a storm drain culvert across 20th Street on the west side of Euclid Avenue.

The council last month rejected a sole bid of $12,000 -- more than double with the estimated cost of the project.

The present bid approval is dependent on participation by two property owners.

Also approved was the appointment of Lyle Graham as police sergeant on probationary status.

Youngsters Enjoy Art And Craft's Program

UPLAND - In today's highly mechanized society, the joys of personally creating something is often times missed. Youngsters in the arts and crafts program sponsored by the Upland Recreation Department have gained much self-satisfaction and individual creativity.

They have learned how many beautiful things can be made from a bit of colored tissue or a bit of pretty ribbon or lace. Each class represents a certain order of neat messiness.

The young students work at benches and tables in one-half of the room. A long table against one wall is filled with everything from lima beans necklaces to discarded egg cartons.

The look of pleasure on a boy or girl's face when he has completed for example an attractive squaw necklace, the turquoise made of large lima beans painted turquoise, drilled, and strung with dyed macaroni on a bit of raffia, can be seen every day from 9-12 and 1-4 at five recreation arts and crafts centers around the city.

Youngsters in the arts and crafts program have learned that a bean's utility extends beyond its use as an element of body nourishment, as it also can nourish spirit. More important, it can nourish the spirit of creativity.

Upland Slow Pitch Enters Final Round

At the end of the second round Key Realty and Citrus Motors are tied, while the Upland Mets are one game ahead of Car Care in their respective leagues.

In this week's action the Upland Post Office slipped past Upland Presbyterian 10-9, while the hot bats of the Upland Mets dealt a 33-1 blow to the Ontario Chrysler-Plymouth team and Key Realty behind good defense bumped Linde 25-4.

Gil Rivera (Cucamonga Brown), Ed Hemphill (Car Care), and Don Brownell (Key Realty) all pitched shut-outs while Don Bockman (Upland Mets) pitched two shutouts in the second round.

In the home-run derby Jim Davis (Car Care) still leads the pack with six round trippers, followed by Warren Kirkpatrick (Key Realty) with 3, Bill Blanchard (Car Care), Harry Walker (Mets), Rodger Piszczek (Citrus Motors) and Kick Gilmore (Citrus Motors) all have two.

Action in the third and final round got underway Monday. Improvement in all teams has been noted, and the final round could be one of upsets.

Mrs. Ester Black Has Retired Her Spirit Is At Baldy View

UPLAND - Twelve classes of third graders at the Baldy View Elementary School in Upland have called Mrs. Ester, Boulton Black their teacher.

In June, Mrs. Black will be retiring. Her contribution to Upland third graders, however, will not go into retirement with her.

Mrs. Black's book, "Stories of Old Upland for Young Listeners," has become an important part of third grade curriculum in the Upland School District.

Every school in the district has been given a copy of the book along with 100 color and black and white slides to illustrate its contents.

Mrs. Black started the book as an assignment for a social studies class at the Claremont Graduate School 12 years ago. "I interviewed old-timers in Upland and went through library files to gather the information," she explained.

You have to make the book colorful to make it interesting to the children, she said. You can't just write facts because you won't be able to hold the children's interest.

To make her book interesting she collected stories of the area and grouped them into three categories: The Wild West (before 1880), The Colony (1880-1900), and Growing Up (1900-1920).

Published by the Upland School District, the book is now in its second printing. Selling for $2.50 each, 500 duplicated copies have been made.

Mrs. Black dedicated her book to the late Frances Mitchell, former principal of Baldy View.

Mrs. Black with her children

The principal who made a teacher out of me. Her advent into teaching came only a few years ago.

I was elected eighth grade chairman of the Parent-Faculty Association in Claremont, she explained. I decided to take a parent-school relation class at Claremont Graduate School to help me with it.

That was 12 years ago. She enrolled in the Ford Foundation Internship Program and became a teacher.

Since her graduation from the program, Mrs. Black has taught third grade at Baldy View.

HAPPY MEMORIES
"I had very happy memories of third grade," she explained.

Mrs. Black is a graduate of the University of Arizona, in 1924, and Columbia University's school of Journalism in 1926.

REPORTER, TOO

She was a reporter for the POMONA BULLETIN in 1925 and worked for the PROGRESS - BULLETIN for the next 10 years. From 1937 to 1939, she worked on the UPLAND NEWS.

Concerned with Upland's housing problems, Mrs. Black accepted a position with the Housing Authority. She remained in that position for the next 15 years.

Following her retirement this summer, she hopes to translate several children's books from Spanish into English.

She and her husband, Douglass, plan to move from their Claremont home to a mountain cabin in Runningsprings.

She also hopes to collect more historical information on Upland following her retirement.

She and her husband have lived in Claremont for 40 years.

Her family, however, moved to Upland in 1919 and her husband's family moved to Upland in 1905. They grew up a few blocks from each other on Euclid Avenue.

They have three children: Mrs. Ethel (Robert) Deffeyes, of Sunnyvale; Richard Black, a helicopter pilot in Vietnam; and James Black, an engineer at McDonald-Douglass.

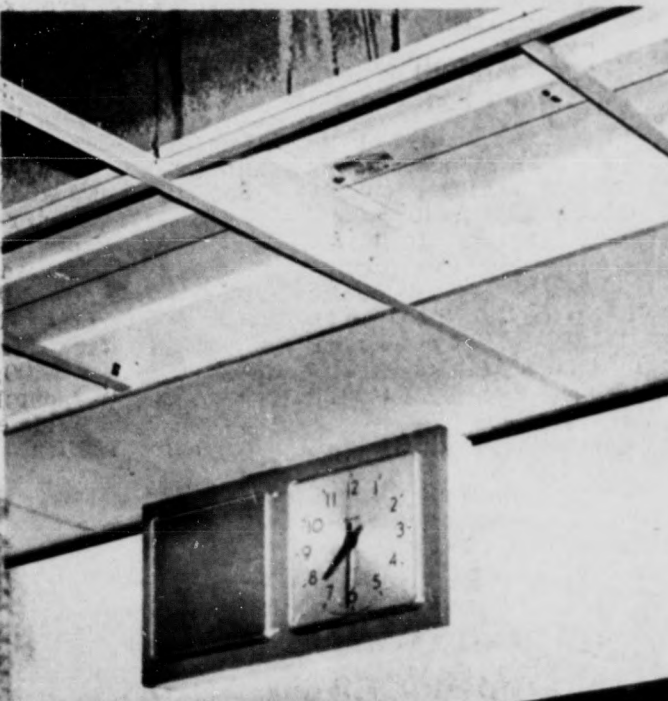

UPLAND JUNIOR HIGH'S -- new gymnasium will be ready soon for the expected sports activities when school opens in the Fall. Workmen are seen preparing the stagings as they make plans to lower the ceilings and install new lighting fixtures. The walls are finished in colorful sound proofing materials and backboards are in place.

PROTECTION FROM THE WEATHER AND VANDALS -- is provided for Upland Junior High School students when they place property in school lockers. Behind those gleaming doors, viewed in the new school structure are student lockers. The large garage type doors will be brought down and locked each afternoon when students leave for the day.

ACOUSTICAL TILES -- lowered ceilings, intercom system, new clocks and vinyl wallpaper in bright well lighted rooms are some of the attractions and changes brought about by the renovating of Upland Junior High.

Upland Receives $3,008 As Share Of Beverage Tax

The city of Upland has received $3,008 as its six-month share of the special fees paid by holders of alcoholic beverage licenses.

The payment was made by the state's department of alcoholic beverage control which allocates 90% of all license fee money back to individual cities and counties where it is used to offset the costs of police and fire protection, schools, highways, hospitals and other government services. The remaining 10% goes into the state's general fund where it is used for similar purposes.

The most recent payment was for the six-month period ending Feb. 29, 1968. San Bernardino County as a whole, including the unincorporated area, received $213,916 for the period.

A package store beer and wine license costs the owner $37 with a yearly renewal fee of $12. A general on-sale tavern license costs $6,580 originally, with an annual renewal fee of $580, while a beer and wine only tavern license costs $234, renewable yearly for $84.

SD Co. Heart Fund Tops $100,000 For First Time

A landmark in the 17-year history of the San Bernardino County Heart Association was reached this year when the 1968 Heart Fund topped $100,000.

A final tabulation of contributions for the fiscal year brought the drive total up to $100,342 as of June 30.

Donations from various sources during the final month pushed the year's drive over its goal of $99,076, a record quota set for San Bernardino County by the American Heart Association.

Directing the campaign this year was Clarence L. Gurr, San Bernardino assisted by Roy C. Hill, county superintendent of schools.

"The victorious campaign is a credit to Gurr and Hill and the more than 7,000 men and women volunteers whose devotion to the battle against heart disease made this possible," said Dr. Clarence A. Paul, newly elected Heart Association president.

"Residents of San Bernardino County can also take pride in this noteworthy campaign achievement," Dr. Paul said, "for their generous donations will go a long way in the never-ending search for a cure to heart disease and treatment of those suffering from it."

Programs into which the local chapter channels its funds cover four fields—research, communication and professional education.

Typical of community service endeavors are two projects initiated this past year by the Heart Association—a mass screening of school children for heart defects and a clinic for persons whose damaged hearts are kept beating by batteries.

These will be added to numerous other projects which the county chapter supports annually with grants.

At its annual meeting in June, the Heart Association announced grants during the coming year will total nearly $20,000 for such projects as the Inland Heart Center, stroke rehabilitation and research, among others.

The 1968-69 $10,000 grant to the Inland Heart Center where heart surgery is performed for residents of San Bernardino and Riverside counties brings the total contribution to $75,000 since the Center opened in 1960.

The chapter $7,050 does not include its $15,000 payment to the American Heart Association for national research support. This brings the chapter's total research contribution during its 17-year history to $225,000.

The historic campaign year saw record contribution made in the county's 21 major areas during February's Heart Fund drive.

In addition, a new awareness of the heart through such facts as human transplants spurred donations in many other areas throughout the year.

Businessmen, realizing the economic loss to themselves and the community when heart disorders strike employees or customers, made record contributions in business drives; memorials are at gifts hit new levels and donations topped previous levels in such categories as A I D and other employee groups with payroll deduction plans.

"There's no substitute for a healthy heart. It's heart-warming to see the public response to the Heart Association's appeal to build a healthier community," said Dr. Paul, a Redlands specialist in the treatment of heart disease.

Jerry's Journal

by JERRY PETTIS
CONGRESSMAN, 33rd Dist.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Since the tragic death of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and other members of Congress have received hundreds of letters urging enactment of strong anti-crime legislation.

We may have a "Great Society" but it lives in continual fear and crime in the streets has become our nation's most critical domestic issue.

What has been done about this sorrowful state of affairs? An anti-crime bill overwhelmingly passed by Congress lies on the president's desk unsigned as I write this.

And we have "commissions to consider," to study the problems, and suggest answers. We probably have as many committees at work now as there are dandelions on the White House lawn.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE
The President in a message to Congress said he has asked the governors of the state to review gun control laws and amend them where necessary to fully protect citizens of their states from deadly weapons in dangerous hands.

This is the very thing I suggested over a year ago and have been working constantly for — stronger state control of gun laws.

We've got to realize the Federal Government can't do everything, that the local communities must have a close and direct hand in all planning and in all carrying-out of plans.

Most states and counties such as San Bernardino County have adequate anti-crime laws and well-trained, dedicated law-enforcement officials. Unfortunately, in many cases they are hamstrung by those who seek to protect the criminal from society's justice.

NATION OF LAWS
Nearly 300 years ago, William Penn envisioned a nation in which "the laws rule and the people are a party to those laws." We have, for nearly two centuries now, prided ourselves on being that nation of laws, not of men.

Our rights and freedoms will not, however, continue to be the envy of the world if we allow our institutions to be trampled in the streets by mobs which burn block after block of riot-torn cities.

It was Abraham Lincoln who pointed out the dangers of any course other than the course of order.

"Let every American," Lincoln said, "every lover of liberty, swear never to violate in the least particular, the laws of the country."

Our constitutional guarantee of liberty is firmly rooted in an organized society maintaining public order. Without order, liberty is worthless; for without order, liberty is smothered in the mindless excesses of anarchy and mob rule.

MOB RULE
And there is no justice in mob rule.

Another great American former lightweight boxing champion Archie Moore, knows this full well and is speaking out against rioting and violence.

"If you listen to the professional rabble-rousers, adhere to this idea of giving up everything you've gained in order to revenge yourself for the wrongs that were done you in the past — then you'd better watch your neighbor, because he'll be looting your house next," the Negro leader said.

"Granted, we still have a long way to go to gain a fair shake. But believe this: if we resort to lawlessness, the only thing we can hope for is civil war, untold bloodshed and the end of our dreams."

I, for one, couldn't agree more with Archie Moore's words of wisdom. Americans have learned in recent months that a society can be neither secure for men, nor safe for women, if it is lenient with criminals.

Above all, we've got to strengthen our state and local governments to deal with crime at the local level.

YOUR ASSEMBLYMAN AT WORK

John V. Briggs 35th District

It is estimated that from 20% to 25% of our national wealth is spent in the purchase of real estate. The contribution real estate makes to national commerce is even greater, a common estimate being 50%. Its contribution to our national wealth is estimated at 75%.

These figures include lands used for agriculture, mining, timber production, the industries they support, recreation, any direct use of land you can think of. They point out why our booming population growth is causing serious studies of the best use of land.

In California, particularly, open land is being used at an astonishing rate. Most of us who have lived here for any length of time can drive through urban areas and say, "I remember when this was out in the country." Urban sprawl is gulping orchards, beach fronts, bean fields and forest lands. It is getting fat and sluggish, its arteries choked with traffic, its shopping districts congested, parks and canyons overrun.

There is a confusion of overlapping city and county jurisdictions to administer the necessary services, streets, utilities, police and fire protection, planning and zoning. The planning officials, particularly, are harried. They want to see orderly expansion, providing a good environment for the community. At the same time, they cannot stifle free enterprise and natural growth, nor can they be sure the decisions they make are the right ones.

It's a cloudy crystal ball with government, industry builders, and the private citizen grouped around it, trying to penetrate the haze.

To try to set certain minimum standards of planning, the State Legislature in 1967 passed Assembly Bill 1952, laying out broad guidelines for staffing planning departments, encouraging cooperation between overlapping jurisdictions. In late January 1968 the California Department of Housing and Community Development put together a conference at the request of Governor Reagan, bringing together city, county, state, and federal officials, builders, real estate specialists, planners, educators.

It was the Governor's Conference on Planning for Housing and Home Ownership, some 700 attending from all over California discussed the problems facing us, suggested solutions. It is too early to know what fruit the conference will bear, but it is a good start at piercing the haze of the crystal ball.

Off in the distance is the spectre of dwindling agricultural land used for food production. When will so much be covered by streets, housing and industry that there will not be enough feed grown to feed the population? It has happened in other nations: England, Japan, China, India. What then? Do we import feed from where? Do we farm the sea?

Increasing population density in our cities is a better answer, provided it is done in a way that contributes to the individual's enjoyment of life. Cluster houses, condominiums, new ideas in town houses, high rise apartments, are in the news for this reason. Planned correctly, they save land for parks and recreation and still do not sprawl onto agricultural land.

Taxing policies need careful study, too. Should tax assessments on land used for agriculture be kept low enough to make it economical for the farmer to produce crops? Is that practical when a shopping center or a high-rise apartment is just over the fence, the land near it highly valuable?

Should there be a tax break given the private enterpriser who wants to rehabilitate an apartment building in the city's core to the point where people would rather live there than move out to the suburbs?

These are monumental questions that are occupying the thoughts of involved people in government and private enterprise. This seems to put them beyond you and me, but it really doesn't. Whatever is proposed in our community will be widely discussed. Proposals may become ballot propositions at election time. They will result from zoning board hearings, planning official proposals. These proposals will involve all of us.

The important fact to remember is that this is a free society. Planners cannot and should not arbitrarily dictate what should be done, nor do most of them want to. They are experts whose advice we need and whose guidance can help solve these problems. They want the same result as we -- a good, satisfying place in which to live, a free place with all the choices possible to let us do what we want with our lives.

Kaiser Steel Employs 161 Disadvantaged Youths

Kaiser Steel announced today it had employed at its steel plant in Fontana 161 disadvantaged youths, ages 16-21, since emphasizing its program of hiring from among disadvantaged minority Negro and Mexican groups last April.

According to John D. Saussaman, vice president of Operations at the plant, the employment program was started in response to the request of the Federal Government that business firms in the nation help solve unemployment problems among minority groups. On a local basis Kaiser Steel is also advising with members of the County Board of Supervisors.

Saussaman said the Edward F. Kaiser, chairman of the board of Kaiser Industries, had pledged employment of more than 1,000 people from minority groups by the various affiliated Kaiser Companies. Kaiser Steel's part of the pledge as an affiliated company with employment at the steel plant in Fontana of 170 people, or 2 percent of the plant employment. At other company locations similar efforts are being made.

Since April some 176 youths were actually hired at the plant and only 15 have terminated, leaving 161 still employed. Of this number, 150 in the age group of 18-21 have been employed in regular mill entry jobs on a full time, permanent basis, in the same sense that all new employees are hired.

The smaller group of 11 employees are ages 16-18, and most are school dropouts. These young people work four hours a day at various jobs allowed by state law in an industrial plant. The other four hours are spent in the classroom each day where they are trained in writing, mathematics, and other communication skills by a state credentialed teacher employed for the summer by the company. The purpose of this program is to motivate these young people by showing them the many job opportunities in industry so that they will want to complete their education by returning to school in September.

Cal-Tax Say Property Tax Relief Possible In State

SACRAMENTO -- The California Taxpayers' Association has proposed that property tax relief promised last year by the legislature be provided by permanently restricting demands of welfare on property tax.

Amendments proposed by Cal-Tax are going in to AB 1590, Chapple, and will be proposed when AB-149, Veneman, is heard by the Senate Finance Committee. The Chapple bill has been sent to the Assembly Ways and Means Committee where it will be amended and heard.

By having the amendments heard in two bills at the same time, policy decisions can be made by both the assembly and senate in time for adoption before the legislature adjourns.

"If the Cal-Tax amendments are accepted, in the future no county will ever have greater tax liability for welfare than the equivalent of a 20 cent tax rate," Robert C. Brown, executive vice president of Cal-Tax, said.

Total welfare costs now are shared by the federal government, the state and the counties. The Cal-Tax plan deals only with increasing state aid for the costs now borne by the counties.

Initially the state would make a grant to each county of welfare costs up to the equivalent of a 15 cent tax rate. Under 1967-68 budgets all counties except Mono would receive the full grant.

Orange, Plumas, San Benito, San Mateo, Sierra and Ventura would qualify for the second grant according to 1967-68 budgets.

"Our proposal will tie property tax relief to a function which is county-wide in nature and would provide a permanent and predictable ceiling upon a major cost to local government," Brown said. "Welfare costs in every county are a major portion of the total budget. They are paid disproportionately throughout the state and our proposal would equalize the problem."

"In the past when a recession has occurred in San Diego because of a shutdown in the aircraft industry, in Humboldt or Shasta Counties because of a lumber shutdown or in the agricultural areas because something has destroyed a crop, the economy hardest hit has faced an unusual extra welfare burden. Our proposal would move this burden to the statewide base."

"The proposal has an added advantage in that the welfare program will be treated collectively hereafter as one program and complicated cost sharing formulas between counties, the state and the federal government can be adjusted. In the future the only guideline would be the best formula which will obtain optimum federal funds."

WHY A SAUCE

To make a sauce or not, that is a question. A sauce by dictionary definition dresses the food, seasons and flavors it. To add an extra filip to all your sauces, to blend and bring out the flavors pour in a little light or dark corn syrup. When barbecuing, make a quickie sauce by mixing a bottle of catsup with a bottle of Italian dressing; pour in a little corn syrup to taste.

COUNTIES BEAR COST
Counties then would bear the full cost of welfare for the next 20 cent tax rate equivalent.

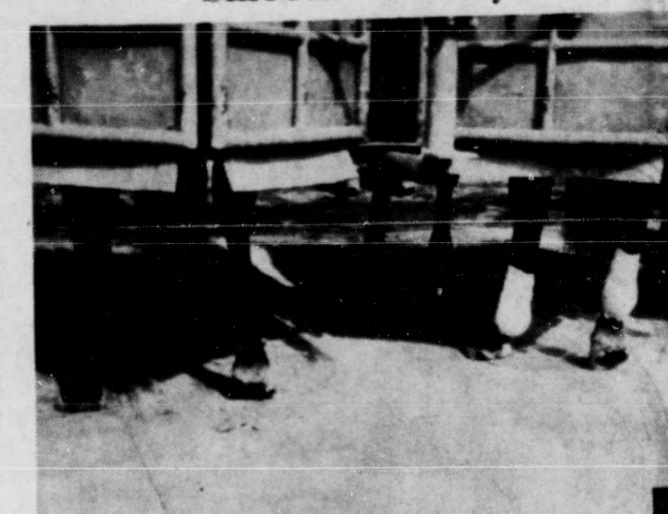

The second part of the state grant then would start to pick up all costs over the 35 cent tax rate equivalent. All counties except Amador, Calaveras, Colusa, Mono,

Helpful Hints for Campus Chemistry Crammers

Have you ever experienced the fatigue brought on by the near-physical effort entailed in cramming for a final exam in Chemistry? Shirlee Lewis, a senior at San Diego's Cal Western campus of United States University has two techniques for easing the strain. First, get an assistant professor like Arthur Saastad to explain away the complexities of chemical equations. Then, to combat fatigue, reach for a flavorful, nutritious glass of Carnation instant breakfast. Remember, professors, too, are people, so, to keep the tutor at peak efficiency, pass him a glass of instant breakfast, too!

The Gas Company supplies its more than 3,000,000 customers with enough equivalent energy to launch 143 Apollo missions to the moon — each and every day of the year. That's a lot of energy. Yet there has never been a time when residents in this area had to wait for gas service.

If you've always been a Southern Californian, that statement won't strike you as unusual. But many people from other parts of the country do think it's unusual. And when they move here they're glad we've worked hard to stay ahead of the rapidly increasing need for natural gas.

We're an investor-owned company, state regulated. And we're always looking ahead, planning ahead. That's the way we do business.

More gas is being used in Southern California for a variety of reasons...from broiling hamburgers to air conditioning office buildings...to consumption by industry including electric generating customers who want to burn natural gas to help in the fight against air pollution. Gas is the number one source of energy in Southern California.

We're investor-owned. That's why we take that "extra step" to meet the growing needs of our customers, large and small. Keeping you satisfied is our number one job.

Seat of the pants flying went out with the Curtiss Robin and the Stinson Reliant — or should have. Today it isn't enough to take "flying lessons" or log 40 hours at a "flying school." Flying hasn't changed. It still uses the same principles but the advantages available to you have changed — drastically. Controlled airport approaches; more sophisticated aircraft; opportunities for minimum visibility flying are but a few.

More people are flying. There are more planes in the air. The demands on the private pilot have increased tenfold. A new method of flight instruction has been desperately needed for a long time. That new method has been conceived, right here in Southern California, at Cable Airport in Upland.

"THE CABLEAIR SYSTEM OF FLIGHT EDUCATION."

Cableair puts flight training and air education where they belong — together.

Cableair is an exciting new concept in flight training. It is completely unique. It provides the necessary ingredients to understand today's air opportunities, whether you intend to simply fly for enjoyment alone — or adopt aviation as a career.

We'd like to give you a brochure explaining the Cableair System. Visit us at Cable Airport, just off Foothill near Central in Upland and talk with our Director of Admissions. He'll show you our fleet of brand new Cableair 150 aircraft, the Link Trainers, and involve you in the three Phases of the Cableair System of Flight Education. You might find that urge isn't lurking any more! Call us. (714) 624-9626.

Property Tax Relief Measures Would Change Burden Of Sources

With today's announcement by Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan that the Watson initiative to limit property taxes had won its place on the November 5 election ballot, the people of California were assured of the opportunity to vote themselves a 50 percent cut in their property tax bills.

558,830 valid signatures were certified, Jordan's office said. Only 520,276 signatures were needed to qualify, of which Los Angeles County alone produced 254,379.

The campaign for the property tax reform measure was spearheaded by Philip E. Watson, Los Angeles County Assessor and co-chairman of the Citizen's Committee for Property Tax Limitation. Watson, in the East to attend an executive board meeting of the International Association of Assessing Offices, was jubilant when informed that the measure had qualified.

"To have secured so many signatures in just slightly more than two months demonstrates the widespread public dissatisfaction with the present high level of property taxes," he said.

"Our success is also a tribute to the thousands of volunteers from homeowner groups, realty boards, and local taxpayer and apartment associations which endorsed and co-sponsored the program."

Watson promised a full statewide campaign in support of the initiative. "Qualifying the petition is a major victory," he said, "but it's only half the battle."

The initiative provides that the total burden of all property will be limited to one percent of market value for property-related services, those provided by counties, cities and special districts, beginning July 1, 1969. It also provides for a 20-percent-a-year phase-out of the tax burden for people-related services, the costs of education and welfare, so that by July 1, 1973, schools and welfare will no longer be supported by property taxes. The limit can be exceeded only for existing and future bond and long-term lease charges.

It has won the endorsement of the California Real Estate Association, the California Apartment Association, Conference of California Taxpayers Association, Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors, Sutter County Board of Supervisors, and real estate boards and civic and taxpayer groups throughout the state.

Co-chairman of the Committee is Everett C. McKeage of San Francisco. The Committee is under the direction of Robinson and Company, Inc., a San Francisco firm specializing in initiative campaigns.

Early Notes, Coins At Pomona First In Upland Fascinating

A glimpse into the early history of the West End through a collection of old bank notes and coins is offered by the Upland office of Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan Association.

The bank notes are signed by pioneer bankers of Upland, Cucamonga, and Ontario who lived here at the turn of the century. The money is part of a collection of nearly 100 certificates, coins, and "shin plasters" issued during the Civil War.

The display will remain at the Upland office for the remainder of July and part of August, according to Orville Garrison, vice president and manager of the branch.

Many of the signers have families in the West End who continue the tradition of community leadership characterized by the early settlers.

They include Charles V. Barr who used to sign notes in the 1900s with Harlow S. Wilson for the First National Bank of Upland. Mr. Barr is the father of Allan Barr, current president of the bank.

Another notable is Oscar Arnold who, with George N. Knox, used to sign notes for the First National Bank of Ontario. Mr. Arnold's son, Ralph V., is now chairman of the board of the same bank. A third signer for the bank, as shown on the notes in the display, was H. E. Swan.

Other notes and signatures include those of the Commercial National Bank signed in 1909 by cashier Harold Moore and president Earl Paul; the First National Bank of Cucamonga, represented in 1902 by G. M. McCorkle, cashier and H. C. Wentworth, president; a 1911 Ontario National Bank note signed by N. E. Trautman, cashier and George A. McCrea, president; and a 1929 series of Citizens National Bank note signed by Wilmer White and Howard R. Berg.

The display takes the viewer back to the times when each bank issued its own paper money, provided it had enough security to back up the claims. The unsigned certificates were bought from the U.S. Treasury. They became negotiable as soon as the bank officials affixed their signatures.

Distribution of paper money was later given to the U.S. Treasury exclusively to eliminate confusion which resulted from the hundreds of different types of bank notes.

The exhibit is owned by Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan Association.

Heart Unit Elects 2 S.B. Officials

SAN BERNARDINO — Two San Bernardino men will serve as officials with the California Heart Association during 1968-69, representing San Bernardino County and the local Heart Association chapter.

Aaron B. Katz, an insurance executive, has been elected to the CHA Board of Directors, and Dr. I. Hunter Crittenden, a pediatric cardiologist, will serve on the state executive committee.

IS IT CASHABLE? -- This old $10 bill being held by Orville Garrison, vice president and manager of Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan at the Upland branch on Foothill and Allan Barr, president of the First National Bank of Upland. A collection of early day bank notes, certificates, coins and "shin plasters" will be displayed at PFF during July.

Flood Control Project Gets Approval

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- Rep. Jerry Pettis, R-Loma Linda, said the Senate, July 2, authorized $26.3 million for a flood control project at Cucamonga Creek.

The San Bernardino County Congressman said the project will improve the future economy of the area and protect the Ontario International Airport airstrip which passes over presently inadequate storm drains.

"The area could well be faced with future flooding without this flood control measure," Pettis said. "Cucamonga Creek is an uncontrolled and hazardous stream which threatens life and property in the rapidly developing area of Ontario, Upland, Cucamonga and Chino."

The creek drops from an elevation in excess of 9,000 feet to 400 feet in a distance of 14 miles, according to government engineers.

The county lawmaker said plans for the project call for construction of debris collection facilities in the headwaters of Cucamonga Creek and its tributaries with a system of concrete channels running a total of 15 miles.

"This system will collect the floodwaters in the main channel of the creek and transport the water to the Prado Reservoir to be constructed at Chino," Pettis said.

The entire flood control project will cost an estimated $34.5 million with $8.2 million to be supplied through state and county

Ayala Appoints Optometrist to Medical Agency

CHINO — County Supervisor Ruben Ayala has appointed a local optometrist to a new emergency medical care committee.

Dr. Harold Courtney was named to the committee, which will make recommendations to the Board of Supervisors regarding medical services in the county, particularly Medicare and Medi-Cal, Ayala said.

Committee members are in frequent contact with the medical profession. Members include ambulance operators, physicians, sheriff's deputies and officers from the California Highway Patrol.

Heart Contributions

County Fund Drive Over $100,000 Mark

West End contributions to this year's Heart Fund Drive totaled $19,313.76, helping to boost the county total over the $100,000 mark for the first time in the history of the County Heart Association.

Contributions from individual cities in the West End are as follows: Upland, $6,277.49; Ontario, $8,623.87; Montclair, $1,217.08; Cucamonga, $1,509.12, and Chino, $1,687.20.

Major recipients of the funds include the Inland Heart Center for research on heart surgery and heart diagnostic procedure, the stroke program, the Stanford Coronary Care Unit, and the Veteran's research.

For their work for the Heart Association, thirteen West End residents received special recognition June 5 at the annual meeting of the San Bernardino County Heart Association.

Awards for outstanding educational service in the past year for the Heart Association were given Jack Hildebrand, Joseph Marchal and Ralph Viggers, all from The Daily Report.

Other local awards were given to Carl J. Schuler and Mrs. Anthony Peich of Chino; Mrs. C.D. Minter and Mrs. Samuel B. Rowe, Cucamonga; Mrs. R. Fred Price, Upland; Mrs. Samuel G. Harris, Montclair; and Charles W. Wolfe, and Mrs. Edward J. Duffy, Ontario.

Elected as the 1968-69 president of the association was Dr. Clarence A. Paul of Redlands, specialist in internal medicine. The meeting was held at the Redlands Country Club.

CHAMBER TO PROBE

Dope Cure Center Annoys Residents

CUCAMONGA — Complaints of annoying activities at the Teen Challenge Center here have been received, and the Chamber of Commerce wants to do something about it.

To find out what can be done, four chamber members plan to meet soon with representatives of the center.

Teen Challenge, located at 9395 San Bernardino Road, was established to help narcotics addicts. But chamber members said Tuesday that they find some activities around the Teen Challenge buildings objectionable.

"My consensus is that we don't want this in the middle of Cucamonga," said chamber president Dean Lucas. He, Milan (Chuck) Swan, Bill Reckert and Frank Penn, plus Cucamonga Fire Chief Arvid Lewis are to set up a meeting with Teen Challenge officials.

Swan, noting large numbers of persons at Teen Challenge meetings, wanted the fire department represented. He said he has asked Cucamonga Fire District commissioners if the district would be liable in case people were injured or killed by fire at a Teen Challenge program.

One chamber member acknowledged that complaints have been raised, "but no one has said specifically what they want done."

Several complaints were raised at Tuesday's chamber meeting.

Swan said that he and his family recently saw two men walking down the street. They were with a third man who was "very sick, and obviously undergoing withdrawal."

"My wife and kids shouldn't have to see this," Swan said. He also said that Teen Challenge workers "have been stopping junior high school girls on their way home, giving them pamphlets."

Penn, a former member of the San Bernardino County

Grand Jury, said that the 1967 panel received a report on Teen Challenge. "There was no way we could exert any pressure ..."

"We received literally hundreds of reports," he said. Penn said one woman had complained about carloads of people showing up for Teen Challenge meetings. "They were drinking beer," Penn quoted the woman, "but at least they put their beer containers in trash cans that were nearby."

"This is the biggest complaint we've had," Swan replied, "complaints about this activity in a residential area."

Swan claims that the Teen Challenge center here is operating differently from the way its functions originally were described.

Original Plan "I was told it originally was to be used only as an outreach office, to refer people to Los Angeles." But Swan said that addicts are being treated at the center.

Reckert, chamber manager, said that in December the County Health Department inspected the Teen Challenge facility and found no violations. Less than a month later, the Building Department went through the place and found 14 violations.

"It's odd to me that one department could give them (Teen Challenge) a clean bill of health and another department in the same county could come up with 14 major violations," Reckert said.

Chamber members also complained that they had been told that only teen-agers would be counseled at Teen Challenge, but ages of the participants range up to 40 years.

Swan said he suggested at a past meeting with one of the Teen Challenge officials "that names of the addicts be turned over to the police department. No one knows who's in there."

Inland Center Tax Totals $490,000

SAN BERNARDINO — Almost a half-million dollars in estimated sales tax revenues produced by Inland Shopping Center here will be shared with the county and its 11 other cities.

Mayor Al C. Ballard, appearing Wednesday before the Local Agency Formation Commission, said the City of San Bernardino would uphold its 1966 agreement that had been offered to ease the initial annexation of the center into the city.

Sales losses to established retail centers in other sections of the City of San Bernardino since development of Inland Center were estimated at $21 million by one financial consultant.

Inland Center

Of the present $490,000 in sales tax accrued from Inland Center, San Bernardino will retain 80 per cent. The county would receive approximately $92,000, which would be reduced to an estimated $52,000 after shares are apportioned to the cities.

Ballard was commended by Commission Chairman William M. Fisher for recognizing the "... moral obligation to live up to the 1966 agreement."

For several months the San Bernardino mayor has been reluctant to commit the shopping center tax revenues to a sharing plan, citing that annexation of the property cost his city $1 million.

Apportionment of the tax revenues is designed to help cities reduce the loss of income that would have resulted from commerce within their own boundaries had the new shopping center not opened.

Sales losses to established retail centers in other sections of the City of San Bernardino since development of Inland Center were estimated at $21 million by one financial consultant.

Cucamonga Wines Toast State's Great Leaders

For the second consecutive year, fifty distinguished honorees of the American Academy of Achievement have been toasted with California wines at the annual Banquet of the Golden Plate held this year in the Grand Ballroom of the Statler Hilton Hotel, Dallas.

Al Vasquez, host of the Brookside Winery in Cucamonga, said that Assumption Abbey wines, produced by Brookside under the auspices of the 1400-year-old order of Benedictine Monks, were exclusively featured at ceremonies honoring 1968's fifty outstanding leaders in science, arts, industry and other fields.

Among the "Captains of Achievement" named were Edouard Fiset, Montreal's Expo 67 Architect; Dr. Denton A. Cooley, pioneer heart transplant surgeon; baseball great Stan Musial; Hawaii Sen. Daniel K. Inouye, Jr.; blind pianist-composer George Shearing; Marine Sgt. Jimmie E. Howard, Medal of Honor winner; and astronaut James A. Lovell.

Others included were Louis Heron, Washington correspondent for the London Times; Dr. Marguerite M. Rogers, "Woman Engineer of the Year"; Dr. E. Wilson Lyon, President, Pomona College; and Dr. Carl Eckart, professor of physics, University of California at San Diego.

Old-Fashioned Zucchini Recipe

This is an old-time favorite way for preparing zucchini. Wash one pound zucchini. . . gently brush it to remove rough spots, but do not peel. Cut into slantwise slices; dip in milk and then lightly in flour. Fry in deep hot fat, 375 degrees, until golden brown. Drain on paper towels. Sprinkle with mixture of salt, ground black pepper and paprika. Keep warm in oven until serving time.

Co-Pilots Creed Is Important, Too

If that gala weekend you're planning includes driving any distance, remember your role as wife and mother extends beyond packing the sandwiches, mustard and suntan lotion.

Here are some frequently overlooked safety suggestions which will help make your family's Fourth safer and saner.

1. Insist the car be checked out -- tires, brakes, headlights, windshield wipers -- the day before you start out.

2. Don't leave the driveway without everyone being buckled in, doors locked and the littlest ones warned to stay away from doors and windows.

3. Be a "side seat driver." Help to spot hazards in your field of vision but don't nag. Speak up if you think he's driving too fast.

4. Keep the children from shouting and distracting the driver. Always have a game or two in reserve--What Am I?

License Plates (find the most out-of-state plates.)

5. Stop often and reward yourselves with a coffee break. Leave the car, walk around, preferably have your coffee in a snack bar. The object is not just to stop, but to get a change of environment and some exercise.

6. Don't serve the driver food or beverages while you're sailing down the highway. Eating with one hand and trying to keep control of the car with the other is foolhardy. Stop when you eat, and eat lightly.

7. Keep alert to signs of fatigue in the driver. Suggest shifting his position behind the wheel.

Test his alertness often with a question or two. Above all, prevail on him to leave the highway at the first sign of drowsiness.

Include this "Co-pilot's Creed" in your year-round driving habits. It will help keep your crew safe for many happy holidays to come.

Insure an enjoyable fishing trip or outing by exercising a few simple precautions with your fishing gear. Shield hooks with a small cork over the barb and store lures in the tackle box until needed. Dependency Commission

Receives Grant

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- Rep. Jerry Pettis, R-Loma Linda, announced that the Office of Economic Opportunity has awarded grants in the sum of $80,000 to the San Bernardino Dependency Prevention Commission.

The two grants include $50,000 for "Project Hire," a pioneer program to help evaluate the potential for placing aging citizens in career development positions. The congressman said 20 senior citizens will participate in the project which is designed to develop part-time employment combined with job training and self-renewal services.

The second grant in the amount of $30,000 is a supplemental award to "Operation Contact" for a six-month period. The additional funds will enable the Dependency Prevention Commission and its director, Robert McBay, to contact low-income residents, help them obtain jobs and follow up on their progress, Pettis said.

Summer Dessert

For a good summer dessert, serve cantaloupe halves filled with vanilla ice cream. Some melba sauce dribbled over the top will add color and flavor.

Housewife Winner Of Fair Theme Contest

Happy memories -- of the county fair at Amarillo, Tex., 35 years ago, and the haunting theme from an old movie -- were brought together by Jessie May Aaron in the words, "A Fair to Remember."

The San Bernardino housewife jotted it down on a postcard and entered it in the San Bernardino County Fair theme contest, just in time.

It won. She'll step before the grandstand for her $100 U. S. Savings Bond Aug. 28, first night of the six-day exposition at Victorville.

Judges -- western star Roy Rogers and staff and Victorville Mayor David A. Brownell -- all rated it above the hundreds of entries. Fair directors agreed. It will be used in numerous promotions in coming months.

"This year's fair will be truly memorable as well as a 'time to remember' the country fair we all knew and loved as a kid," says fair president H. James Gilliam of Barstow.

Jessie ("Jake") Aaron, a comely grandmother now, and her husband Shirley, operating engineer for a paving company, live at 3308 Wall Ave. They came to San Bernardino 32 years ago from the Texas flatlands.

Her family lived on a 700-acre ranch -- "small, by Texas standards," she won blue ribbons for her 4-H jams and jellies. Her two brothers won them for their fat Hereford calves.

"Yes, I surely do remember county fair time," she says, smiling.

"About the closest thing we've seen since is the San Bernardino County Fair. There's horseracing and rodeo and most of the things I remember. I miss the cattleman's hats, though. I guess you know, in Texas just about everybody wears 'em."

Only one of the Aarons' three children is country folk now. A daughter, Mrs. Diana K. Falls, and family live at Clover Creek Ranch, Bliss, Idaho. Another daughter, Betty J. Moberly, is a microbiologist at the University of Oregon at Eugene. Her husband is a professor there.

Track Opens

With the 1968 Del Mar thoroughbred racing season less than a month away, the seaside course's racing office has been opened for business in preparation for the 42-day meet which begins Wednesday, July 24.

James Herbabeaux, aide to Racing Secretary Barry Whitehead, currently is accepting stall applications, which are due by July 6.

A son, S. Sgt. Michael J. Aaron wears the Green Beret of the Army Special Forces. Wounded in the leg during the fighting in Vietnam, he recovered at a hospital in Japan and is now stationed in Panama.

Mrs. Aaron spends much of her time these days making artificial flowers -- and raising real ones. She's an active member of a garden club. She has no time for "people who say they can't find anything to do."

SHE REMEMBERS -- Jessie May ("Jake") Aaron remembers well the "Flatlanders" county fair at Amarillo, Tex., many years ago. The San Bernardino grandmother borrowed also from the title of a popular movie and came up with the winning entry in the San Bernardino County Fair theme contest.

Mail Order Seats Available For Bob Hope Anaheim Show

Seats are now available by mail order only for the Big All-Star Show for the USO, starring Bob Hope, which is scheduled Aug. 10 at 8:15 at Anaheim Stadium.

A lineup of the most famous names in showbiz will be on hand to back up Bob at the Angels' Ball Park. Already signed, sealed and delivered are Les Brown and his Band of Renown. It's traditional that everywhere Bob goes all over the world -- so goes Les and his Merry Musical Men.

In paying warm tribute to Brown, Hope has often said, "I couldn't do a performance for our men in the Armed Forces without Les; he's as close to me as my long red flannel underwear!"

Seats are scaled at $2.50, $3.50, $5.00 and $7.50. Checks or money orders should be made out to "USO-Bob Hope Show," and sent, along with a self-addressed return envelope, to P. O. Box 500, Anaheim, Calif. 92803. Any amount over $5 is tax deductible as a contribution to the USO.

Sen. Coombs Denies Gun Lobby Behind Registration Battle

Senator William E. Coombs (R-Rialto) stated in his weekly report to the district that guns and money still occupy the center of the Sacramento stage. "Most of the opposition to gun control is blamed on the so-called 'gun lobby'."

"Actually," the Senator continued, "it comes from law-abiding people who like to hunt or shoot or who dislike the idea of being defenseless prey for thugs, rioters, and other criminals."

"Equally controversial is the budget and property tax relief. The time is growing short and most of us will see the bills in their final form only a few minutes before we have to vote on them. We will be lucky if there are no major mistakes."

"As of Friday, June 21, 1968, the budget was still in the conference committee consisting of Senators Miller, Teale, and Dolwig and Assemblymen Crown, Lanterman, and Shoemaker. These six men will, for all practical purposes, write the budget and once it is written, there is little an individual legislator can do except to vote for it or against it as a package."

"One way to avoid placing the legislators in this position of pressure is to provide that basic governmental functions can continue after June 30 of each year without passage of the budget. In times past, this has been accomplished by passing a skeleton budget to keep the payroll paid and the housekeeping up to date, without accepting any new or controversial programs or items. This procedure can be costly in terms of time, but it may be necessary to resort to it again if the need proves to be great enough."

Quick canapes: first cut slices of bread in small squares--four from each slice. Mix soft yellow cheese with salad dressing and spread over bread. Bake in a moderate oven for about 15 minutes.

Plan To Sell Chaffey Land Is Voted Down

ONTARIO--A proposal to sell more than 35 acres of Chaffey High School District property failed by one vote Monday night.

The district board, minus one member, A. Richard Allred, voted 3-1 to sell the parcel for $285,000, but the vote had to be at least 4-1 in favor to pass the issue.

Trustee William Draper voted no, stating he concurred with the views of district consultant, Dr. William Driscoll, who recommended against sale at this time.

Draper added that he thought the price was too low and the method of purchase was unfavorable.

The land involved was the site originally considered for Ontario High School. The school was built elsewhere.

The parcel is in the southwest portion of the district on the north side of Philadelphia Ave.

IRS News For Household Employers

Do you have a household employee? If you do, you may be required to file Form 942, Employer's Quarterly Tax Return for Household Employees, F. S. Schmidt, District Director of Internal Revenue for Southern California, said today.

Social Security taxes are due when $50 or more in cash wages is paid to any employee in a calendar quarter for services of a household nature, Mr. Schmidt said.

In general, this includes services performed by cooks, butlers, housekeepers, governesses, maids, cleaning women, valets, baby sitters, janitors, laundresses, furnacemen, caretakers, handymen, gardeners, grooms, and chauffeurs of automobiles for family use.

No taxes are due on amounts paid to persons who are not your employees, Mr. Schmidt said. Carpenters, painters, plumbers, repairmen and others who do work for you as independent contractors are not considered to be employees.

The employer tax and the employee tax are each 4.4 percent, or a total of 8.8 percent, of the total cash wages if $50 or more was paid during a calendar quarter during 1967. If the employer prefers, it is permissible for him to pay the full 8.8 percent, Mr. Schmidt said.

The District Director pointed out the tax applies only to the first $7,800 of taxable cash wages paid to an employee in a calendar year.

Form 942, returns together with payment of the tax covering the three months of April, May and June are due July 31.

Hotpoint in 1937 was the first appliance manufacturer to offer a complete line of matched appliances for the kitchen and home laundry.

Faint Drip Sounds Knell For Mosquitoes

RIVERSIDE--The faint "plunk" of a chemical dripping into water is a loud death knell for certain types of mosquitoes.

Dr. Mir S. Mulla, Riverside entomologist in the University of California, has developed a simple yet effective mosquito-killing technique. The technique consists of dripping concentrated mosquito larvicides into flowing water. He mounts an insecticide tank over water flowing into sewage lagoons, sewage oxidation ponds, pastures or other mosquito breeding areas. The larva-killing compound diffuses and is carried throughout the pond in very small concentrations. In a few hours, all mosquito larvae are dead.

The Riverside insect expert has been studying drip technique as an alternative to areas spraying and other methods used against mosquitoes in areas covered with crop plants, weeds and aquatic vegetation. Dripping leaves no residues on plants covering the aquatic habitat.

Chemicals dripped into gutters, ditches, sewage oxidation ponds and irrigated pastures gave excellent control of mosquitoes which at times fly long distances into urban and suburban areas, Dr. Mulla reported.

"Although the cost of material can be high," he said, "the savings from eliminating inspection labor and repeated treatments will more than offset this higher cost."

One chemical, Dursban, proved highly lethal.

titles of the material -- ranging from 7/100 to 1/10 pound per acre -- gave complete control of mosquito larvae in all experiments.

Other effective materials were Fenthion, methyl parathion and Abate. Fenthion and Abate have low mammalian toxicity and are also safe to fish as dosages used for mosquito control.

Mulla said a few hours of dripping chemicals into water entering mosquito breeding places knocked out all larvae. Used at intervals, the treatment eliminated mosquitoes without harming fish or other major pond life.

The drip technique is only part of the arsenal being developed in California for use against mosquitoes, Mulla added.

"Scientists in the University of California and other agencies are constantly developing new information, new materials and new application methods," said Dr. Mulla. "Mosquito Abatement Districts are quick to apply these new methods."

"Our population growth has resulted in more waste water, hence more breeding areas. Recreation near water has increased greatly. Both factors intensify the mosquito problem."

"Yet California has the best control of mosquitoes achieved anywhere in the world."

"As long as University research and the public's interest in mosquito abatement continue -- unhampered by red tape and unnecessary regulations -- Californians need not fear that mosquitoes will become a widespread nuisance or health menace."

Mama-Daughter Look Alike? Enter Contest

Hey, Mom! Do you and your daughter look alike... really alike?

If you do, you'll be interested in the new contest on tap this year at the Los Angeles County Fair. It's a Mother-Daughter Look-Alike contest.

Age won't count at all—in fact, you won't even be asked how old you or your daughter are. It's important, however, that the two of you look alike, dress alike, walk alike and even talk alike.

The contest will be one of the features of the new Ladies Day programs on Tuesday, Sept. 17. The fair runs from Sept. 13 through Sept. 29.

The contest itself will be held promptly at 5:00 p.m. at the Amphitheatre, but all contestants must be present by 4:30. Entry blanks may be obtained now by writing the Fair office, Box 2250, Pomona 91766.

Special awards will be given the most alike mothers and daughters.

New Name For Security First Security Pacific Nat'l. Bank

LOS ANGELES - The official formation of Security Pacific National Bank as a statewide banking institution, effective, (Monday, July 1), with the merger of Security First National Bank and Pacific National Bank of San Francisco was announced by Frederick G. Larkin, Jr., president and chief executive officer of Security Pacific.

Carl K. Schieck, former president and chief executive officer of Pacific National, becomes executive vice president and administrator of Security Pacific's Northern California Headquarters.

The former Pacific National Bank becomes the San Francisco Main Office of the new bank at 333 Montgomery Street, under the direction of Alfred G. Cinelli, vice president and manager. Cinelli will be assisted by vice presidents Andrew C. Gaither and James M. Crane.

BOARD
The present board of directors of Security Pacific National Bank includes two former directors of the San Francisco-based bank--R. Stanley Dollar, Jr., president of The Robert Dollar Company, and Carl K. Schieck.

Named advisory directors of Security Pacific were Philip S. Fogg, chairman, executive committee, Lear-Siegler, Inc., and Gabriel C. Duque, attorney. Both are former directors of Security First National Bank.

Also named advisory directors of Security Pacific were 14 former directors of Pacific National.

The merged bank, with 366 banking locations, is the second largest in California. It has assets in excess of $5.75 billion and total capital funds approximating $400 million.

The merger with Pacific National Bank represents the first move north of Fresno and San Luis Obispo for the former Security First National Bank.

"With this merger there passes from the California financial community a name—Security First National Bank—that has been prominent since 1929 when the Security Trust and Savings Bank and the Los Angeles First National Bank were merged," Larkin said.

"The passing, however, will not be immediate," Larkin stated, "for we plan to replace branch signs bearing the Security First National Bank name gradually."

He said that further expansion in northern California is planned for the near future.

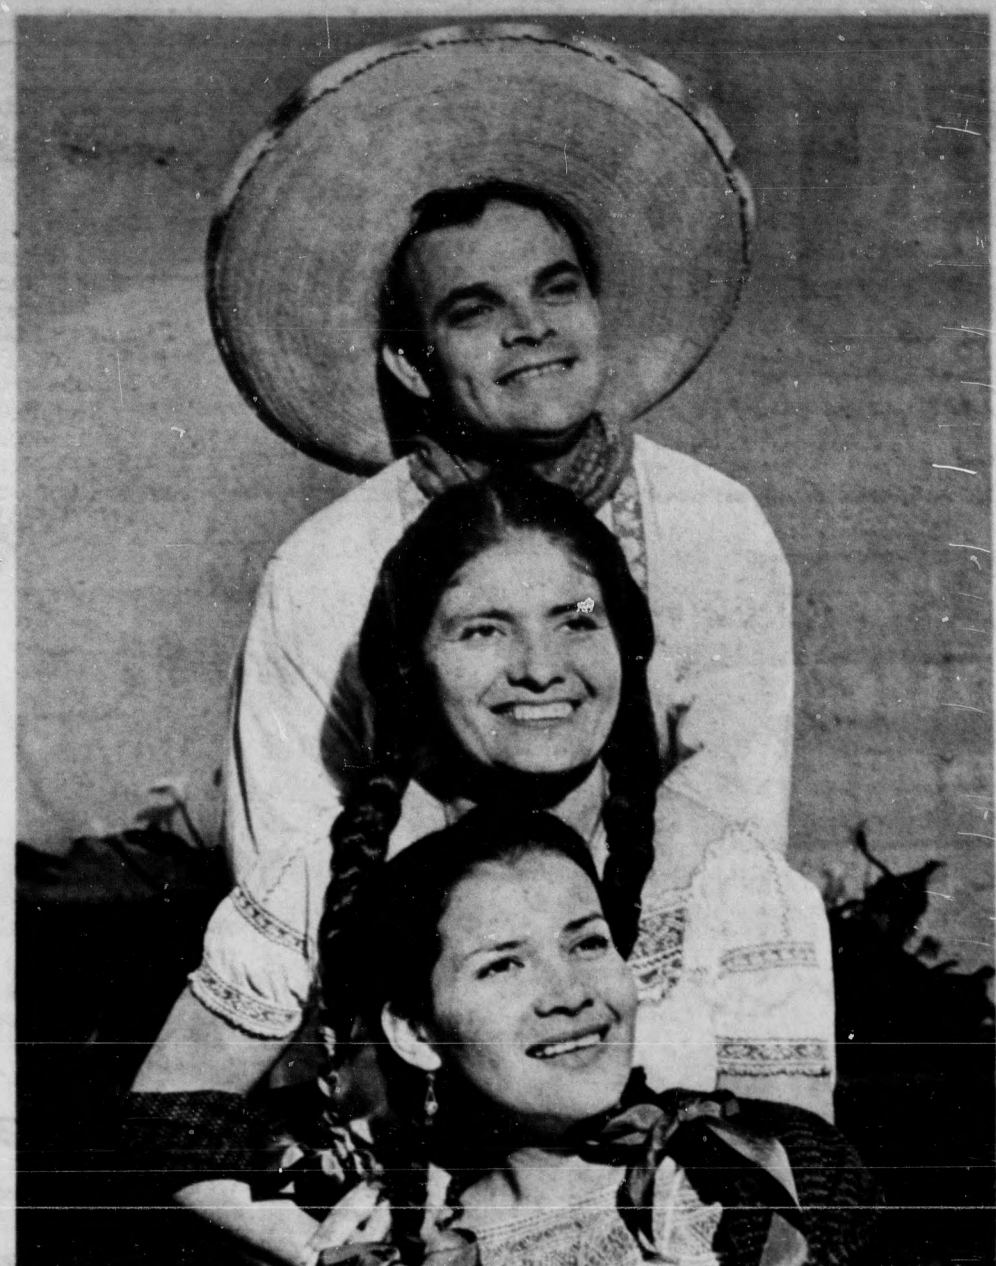

Signs bearing the bank's new name will soon be installed at the bank's headquarters in Los Angeles, 561 South Spring Street.

Interest Rates Will Remain High, Bank Of America Says

Bank of America recently predicted that interest rates will remain high by historical standards despite the recent federal tax increase and spending cut.

"It does not appear likely that interest rates will drop significantly in the near future," according to the world's largest bank, "because credit demands are strong and inflation is still a major problem in our economy."

In a special report entitled "Focus on Interest Rates," the bank states: "The increase in federal taxes and reduction in federal expenditures will reduce the upward pressures on interest rates and could allow some moderate reductions in rates; but as long as economic activity continues at a fast pace, pushing wages and prices up, there is unlikely to be any substantial reduction in interest rates.

"As long as we have an inflationary economic environment, the Federal Reserve will pursue restrictive monetary policies and thus slow the growth in the supply of credit funds. The net result will be generally higher interest rates."

Bank of America recommends that business firms and individuals "should recognize that credit shortages will be the rule in the future, and that the average level of interest rates will henceforth be high by past standards."

"Recognition of this market condition will make long-term planning more realistic and will provide better criteria for investment and spending decisions."

The bank emphasizes that the timely and flexible use of the tools of fiscal policy offers the best long-range alternative to persistent credit shortages and high interest rates.

"We are not willing to accept the position that relative price stability can be achieved in our economy only at the expense of periodic recessions or relatively high rates of unemployment."

"However," Bank of America concludes, "we believe ways can be found to alter procedures to allow more timely taxation and spending decisions by the federal government without severely upsetting the balance of power between the administrative and legislative branches of government."

Copies of "Focus on Interest Rates" may be obtained through any Bank of America branch.

The Mardi Gras de Mexico is an art and cultural trade exposition from Mexico which will be presented nightly at Universal Studios Entertainment Center for six weeks. Diamond Head Land Values Said To Reflect '63 Prices

Passing along a substantial land purchase savings to the home buyer, Diamond Head is now offering quality housing in the Diamond Bar community at economical prices comparable to the market value five years ago.

Three-bedroom, two-bath homes complete with separate family room are priced at $22,500 in the new 500-home A.A. Watt Company residential development, at least $3,500 less than any other house offered in the mammoth 8,000-acre master-planned Pomona Valley community.

Key factor in the current price of spacious Diamond Head homes has been attributed to a sizeable savings in the purchase of the land eight months ago.

The Watt Company bought the 178 acres of rolling country side last November at a price believed to be as low as the original cost of the land in 1963. By conservative estimates, land appreciation has shown an increase of at least 25 percent in surrounding areas during that five-year period.

$2,000 MORE
"Under the existing value of land in Diamond Bar, a home at Diamond Head would have to be priced a minimum of $2,000 higher," according to Philip W. Walsh, Watt Company vice president and regional manager. "Instead, our savings on the land acquisition has been passed on to the homeowner, providing a house in 1968 at 1963 market prices."

Designed by architect Earl Kaltenbach, the three and four-bedroom, one and two-story homes have as much as 1,570 square feet of living space with prices ranging up to $26,500.

Completion of the first group of 25 houses is scheduled for Sept. 1 while construction activity on the second unit will begin July 15. Watt Company plans call for 75 finished houses in 1968 and an additional 25 in the building stage.

FREEWAY SOON
"When the Pomona Freeway is finished within the near future, Diamond Head will be within close proximity of numerous shopping and recreational facilities," Walsh said. "It also opens up convenient commuting with business and industry throughout the entire San Gabriel Valley and Los Angeles."

Three furnished model homes, spotlighting interior design, decoration and color coordination by John Barraclough, are open daily from 10 a.m. to dark.

To reach Diamond Head, take the Pomona Freeway to the end at Fullerton Road and go south a half-mile to Fifth Street. Turn left three miles to Brea Canyon Road and then left again two miles to Prospectors Road and the model complex.

Carnival On Ice Wednesday At Melodyland

Food Gets Outdated, Too

American economy is based on change. When today's teenager of 16 is 26 half the food items in today's supermarket may be out of date. About half the grocery items change every 10 years. Predictions are that in the future there will be a more rapid change.

Last year 6,500 new and improved food items were introduced including many canned and frozen meat dishes.

Bob Hope And Co. To Appear At Anaheim Stadium

Welcome News! The Big All-Star Show for the USO, starring Bob Hope and a galaxy of entertainment greats, comes to Anaheim Stadium Saturday night, Aug. 10.

A lineup of the nation's top performers will assist Bob at the Angels' Stadium as he does what he likes best -- help the USO! Hope of course is a legend in his time; his countless shows at Army and Navy installations all over the globe; his annual overseas Christmas treks and his numerous U.S. appearances for the deep-rooted affection and respect of his fellow-Americans, including millions of fighting men in three wars.

Service men by the thousands pour through the Southland each year for training and to be trans-shipped to war zones. It is Hope's wish that the Big USO Stadium Show will provide much-needed additional funds to the USO so that it can continue to extend the warm hand of Southern California hospitality to lonely young men far from home and loved ones.

Hope, of course, will emcee the program, contributing greatly to its entertainment value with his amusing delivery, his sharp wit and his comic quips.

Famous for his up-to-the minute comments on current events, the noted comedian unquestionably will hit his audience's funny-bones with such timely remarks as:

"Richard Nixon came up the hard way. He never made a movie!"

"I'll be glad when the elections are over. Then we can have television back and get to the real stomach-acid commercials!"

"Prices are really getting high. Our neighborhood butcher shop is now a key club!"

In short, this will be Bob Hope at the "Big All-Star Show for the USO," August 10, at Anaheim Stadium!

Two For The Price Of One

The attempt to save the taxpayers money by our state legislators is all well and good, but some effort should be made by our men in government to use different ghost writers.

In a recent press release sent simultaneously by Assemblyman John V.

Briggs, 35th District, and Assemblyman Peter F. Schabarum, 49th District, there was absolutely no difference in the message. Each one said exactly the same thing, word for word. Following is a transcript of their remarks, still of vital interest to the populace.

G.I. Home Loans For Widows Of Vets Now Easier To Get

Recent changes in the G.I. home loan program should make it easier for thousands of widows of veterans to get G.I. home loans, Mort Webster, Manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Los Angeles, announced today.

Basic eligibility requirements are that the widow's husband either died on active duty or from a service-connected disability, Webster said, and the veteran's service was during World War II or after June 27, 1950.

A new law permits the VA to guarantee home loans up to $12,500 of the loan amount but not more than 60 per cent of the loan, Webster added.

The higher ceiling on G.I. loan interest rates that went into effect recently should help these widows to get a G.I. loan from a commercial lending institution, he said.

Many eligible widows had husbands who served in World War II; under current legislation, they still have more than two years to obtain a G.I. loan - until July 25, 1970.

Entitlement for qualified widows of men who served in the Korean Conflict is not scheduled to expire until January 31, 1975.

Widows whose spouses served during the Vietnam era -- or any time after January 31, 1955 -- will have their eligibility expire:

- 20 years from the date of veteran's death in service,
 - 20 years from the date of the veteran's discharge, or,
 - March 3, 1976 -- whichever is later.
- Webster said that veterans' widows who think they qualify for G.I. loans should obtain further information from the VA office at 1380 South Sepulveda; phone 478-3711.

'The Big One' Is Coming To The Forum On July 23

Where else but the center ring of Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus would you see a huge tiger take a piggy-back ride on the back of his mortal enemy—a horse. This thrilling and spectacular act is seen twice daily and three times on Saturdays at The Greatest Show on Earth, coming to the air-conditioned, fabulous new Forum in nearby Inglewood July 23rd through August 5th. Beautiful blonde Evy Althoff, of the famous Adolph Althoff family, puts her "kitten," King Tiger, the dapple horse, calmly follows her commands as though his animal co-star wasn't a 700-pound Siberian tiger. The act, which took more than a year of patience in order for the two animals to overcome natural fear and hatred of each other so they would perform together, is only one of many exciting and thrilling acts in this 98th edition of the oldest and largest circus in America.

Tickets are available at the Forum box office and all Mutual agencies. Children under 12 are admitted at half price for all performances except Friday nights and weekends. Performances twice daily with three shows scheduled for Saturdays.

Laundry Terms

This is a new term for your laundry. Tap temperature describes water as it flows from the cold-water faucet—usually ranging from 50 to 90 degrees—used to soak certain stains which are set by heat. The fabric may subsequently be washed in warm water or hot suds as usual.

Fix Buttons

To keep matching buttons together, press each button on a strip of cellophane tape and then cover it with another strip of tape. Space the buttons at least a half inch apart, and you can cut each one off as you need it. This method is faster than hunting through a button box for matching buttons.

Early Archery Deer Hunt Season Opens On July 13

Southland bowhunters today were reminded by the Department of Fish and Game that only a small portion of Southern California is in the 16-day early archery deer season which opens half an hour before sunrise on July 13 and ends half an hour after sunset July 28.

Within the early archery season are all of Santa Barbara, Ventura and Orange Counties, plus small areas of private land in western Los Angeles County and the southwest tip of San Bernardino County, the western edge of Riverside County, and a small wedge of northwestern San Diego County.

Most of Los Angeles, San Bernardino, Riverside and San Diego Counties and all of Imperial County is in the late archery deer season which opens August 24 and ends September 15, the DFG noted.

In Southern California there is no change from the 1967 deer season boundaries. Bowhunters are advised to check the season boundaries in the 1967 California hunting regulations booklet, still available free wherever hunting licenses are sold.

Bag and possession limit for the early archery deer season is two bucks, forked horn or better. The $4 resident hunting license and $2 deer tags are required.

Only longbows may be used and they must be capable of casting a legal big-game arrow at least 130 yards. Arrows must have a broad-head blade at least 7/8 inch wide. No arrow may be released upon or across any road open to vehicular traffic.

The DFG noted that most of the public hunting area is within the Los Padres and Cleveland National Forests and advised hunters to check at any Forest Service ranger or guard station for information regarding access and possible fire closures.

LA International Parking Situation Improved

Convenience is a major feature at Los Angeles International Airport's new VSP (Very Special Parking) lot opened with tree transportation via Airport-Transit buses from car door to airline terminal, according to Francis Fox, Department of Airports general manager.

Free buses, operated exclusively for VSP users, will depart from the parking lot at 10-minute intervals between 5 a.m. and 1 a.m. every day, Fox said. Between the hours of 1 a.m. and 5 a.m., a schedule of departures every 15 minutes will be maintained. The VSP lot is located on 11th Street between La Cienega and Airport Boulevards, close to the airport. Buses started operation at 4 a.m. on June 28.

In addition to the convenience of free bus service direct to airline terminals via internal airport service roads, the new parking facility offers the economy of low parking rates. Parking charges will be 25 cents for 6 hours, $1.00 for each 24-hour period.

Adding 1124 spaces to

Los Angeles International Airport's total parking area, the 11th Street lot is the first of a series of parking locations planned for installation out of the center of the airport complex to avoid heavy airport traffic.

Stitch Coats

Take the family's pointa coats to the sewing machine and stitch down the front facings. This enables them to iron much faster and easier. When you do your own sewing, stitch these fronts down while you are making the garment.

Maintenancemen For US Government Jobs

A Civil Service examination has been announced for Maintenance men to fill future vacancies at Federal Agencies located in San Bernardino and Riverside Counties. The starting rates of pay for these positions range upward from $2.95 per hour.

There is no written test. Applicants must show the possession of the necessary skills, knowledge and abilities to enable them to perform work in several building trades without more than normal supervision. Additional information may be secured from the examination announcements which are posted at various Post Offices.

Interested persons should file Application Form SF-57 or SF-171, Supplemental Information Sheet, and Card Form CSC 5001-ABC with the Interagency Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners, 380 West Court Street, San Bernardino, California 92401. Application forms may be obtained at the Interagency Board or from the Post Offices where the announcements are posted. Application will be accepted until further notice.

Drug Costs Dropping

Low cost generic prescription drugs to the average American will soon be a reality, according to A. D. Storch, President of Purepac Corporation, a 40-year-old manufacturer of generic and other drug items.

Congressional investigation into brand name drug pricing, U.S. social health programs, and the expiration of many drug patents have opened a vast new market for such companies as Purepac, he said.

With doctors now writing prescriptions for drugs of generic rather than brand or patented names, the result in many areas of the country is savings of at least 50% to the consumer, he added.

Purepac dramatically illustrates the change this has brought to the drug field. A public company with a low price policy, sales increased last year to $5,000,000, highest in its history. It will report record profits estimated at 20% to 25% per share for 1967.

The trend, expected to continue through 1968, has led to higher stock prices of Purepac ($8) and others in this accelerating growth area of generic drugs. (NP Features)

BACKED UP SEWERS

Backed-up sewers — resulting in flooded basements — can leave infectious germs on basement walls and flooring, in addition to the always-present danger from electricity in the floodwater. Reduce the hazards of germs to your family by washing the basement with a solution containing hot water, a strong detergent and disinfectant. Also, destroy food or food containers exposed to contamination, including fresh fruits and vegetables, foods in cardboard containers, bags, screw top containers and bottles, and meats. Canned food in sealed containers may be salvaged if they are thoroughly washed and disinfected.

$10,000 Presented By Mrs. C. LaFetra

Mrs. C.M. LaFetra, president of Rainbird Sprinkler Manufacturing Company and chairman of the board for the Foundation of Inter-Community Hospital, presented a check for $10,000 to Dr. Clifford Thyberg, president of the ICH board.

The check was given in memory of Mrs. LaFetra's husband, C.M. LaFetra, founder of the Glendora corporation.

"I am giving this money to be used for the renovation and expansion of the Intensive Care Unit and the Coronary Care Unit," said the active business leader.

Mrs. LaFetra was recently the recipient of the 1968 Science and Industry Award for the Outstanding Woman in the Southwest United States. She was also past campaign chairman for the East San Gabriel Valley United Crusade drive, leading a very successful year.

The Foundation of Inter-Community Hospital is a separate non-profit corporation founded in 1967. Its purpose is to raise funds for the building and expansion programs for the new 270 bed general hospital.

David Sherman, president leads the organization, working with a fifteen member board consisting of 5 medical staff members, 5 members of the ICH board of trustees and 5 valley residents. Mrs. LaFetra was elected by the board to be chairman.

CREA Supports Tax-Limitation Initiative Pushed By Watson

The California Real Estate Association over the weekend threw its support behind the Watson tax - limitation initiative which, if qualified, will be on the ballot next November.

Robert W. Karpe of Bakersfield, CREA president, announced that the board of directors of the 46,000-member association took the action June 22 during a meeting at the El Cortez Hotel in San Diego.

"This means," Karpe

said, "that we are urging our 176 local real estate boards throughout California to work actively in their communities in support of the proposal, provided it qualifies for the ballot."

The initiative is in the signature - gathering stage with 520,276 valid voter signatures needed to be filed with the secretary of state by September 3.

The so-called Watson proposal, named for Philip Watson, Los Angeles County Assessor, would limit real property taxes after July 1, 1968, to 1% of actual cash value for providing property related services. In addition, it would limit property taxes for people related services (education and welfare) to 80% of base cost, reducing that by 20% each year until eliminated in 1973.

It is sponsored by the Citizens' Committee for Property Tax Limitation.

Burial Expenses

VA Will Pay Up to $250 of Costs

Up to $250 for burial expenses for eligible deceased veterans will be paid by the Veterans Administration if the claim is filed within two years after the veteran's burial or cremation.

The VA will reimburse up to $250 in expenses for the permanent burial or cremation of any veteran who was discharged under conditions other than dishonorable, if the veteran served during wartime or after Aug.

4, 1964. Also reimbursable up to $250 are burial expenses for a deceased veteran who served between Jan. 31, 1955, and Aug. 5, 1964, and who was receiving disability compensation at the time of death or was separated from service as the result of a disability incurred in line of duty.

Almost every deceased veteran is eligible for an American flag for his casket, the VA said.

'Forest Behind A Fence' A Busy Place This Month

Picnic Hill - the "forest behind a fence" - at the Los Angeles County Fair grounds will be a busy place during the month of July.

Six groups have scheduled company picnics on the hill, plus two groups utilizing the Plaza of the States and three large organizations taking advantage of the Funville Midway special picnic setup.

Other activities during the month include a Horseless Carriage Club swap meet July 6 and 7; American Buckskin Registry horse show July 13-14; pigeon show July 14; Valley Quarter Horse Assn. horse show July 20-21; Sierra Empire Arabian Horse show July 27-28. Groups planning gala picnic events include Cal-Mold Inc.; Pomona Valley Japanese Shinwakai; World Title Company; Electronic Specialties Co.; State Farm Mutual Insurance; Comupac React Club; Garabaldina Society; Ugeden Laboratories; Pomona Moose Lodge; Sons of Columbus and Freightliner Corp.

Bob White In New Post At Cal Poly Top Pro Tennis Players Tangle

Milton R. "Bob" White, 41, has been named to the newly-created position of Director of Development, effective July 1, according to Dr. Robert C. Kramer, President, California State Polytechnic College, Pomona.

White will work directly with Dr. Richard M. Swenson, Administrative Vice President, in the development of programs to accommodate the projected growth of Cal Poly to a campus of 20,000 students by 1996.

White, a member of the faculty at Cal Poly since 1959, has served the college in several roles including Director of Placement and Financial Aids; Faculty Alumni Advisor; Professor, School of Agriculture; and Property Acquisitions Assistant to the Director of Business Affairs.

An active member of the Board of Directors and Research Committee of the Western College Placement Association, White also is affiliated with the American Personnel and Guidance Association, Student Personnel Association, of California Colleges, California Educational Placement Association, Personnel and Industrial Relations Association District II, Pomona Personnel Association and the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce Personnel Manager's Committee.

White is a graduate of California State Polytechnic College, San Luis Obispo, with a Bachelor of Science degree, and holds a Master of Arts degree, Claremont University Center. He lives with his wife Annadale, a Claremont Unified School District teacher, and two children, in Claremont.

Wimbledon open champion Rod Laver and Ken Rosewall draw first-round byes in the pairings for the Los Angeles Professional Tennis Tournament, July 17-18-19, at the Fabulous Forum.

The spotlight thus falls on Pancho Gonzalez, former world champion on the comeback trail at 40, and Roy Emerson, amateur king who recently turned pro. The winner will meet Rosewall in the second round Thursday, July 18.

The other first-round pairing in the men's division on opening day (Wednesday) pits Andres Gimeno, the Spanish champion, against Australia's former Davis cup hero, Fred Stolle. The victor will face Laver in the following day's second round.

First-round pairings in the women's division finds Billie Jean King, ranked No. 1 world-wide, meeting Francoise Durr, the French champion.

Tickets are scaled at $6, $5, $4 and $1 (children 50 cents), with a three-day ticket in the exclusive Golden Circle priced at $25. They are available at the Forum.

Hail The Proud Veal Paprika!

Veal Paprika
(Makes about 6 servings)

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1/2 cup all-purpose flour | 1 teaspoon paprika |
| 1 teaspoon salt | 2 cups water |
| 1/8 teaspoon pepper | 3/4 cup Borden Instant Nonfat Dry Milk, dry form |
| 1-1/2 pounds boneless veal shoulder, cut into 1-inch cubes | 3 tablespoons all-purpose flour |
| 3 tablespoons vegetable oil | 1 teaspoon salt |
| 1 medium-size onion, chopped | Dash pepper |
| 1/2 medium-size green pepper, chopped | |

In a medium-size mixing bowl, combine 1/2 cup flour, salt and pepper. Toss veal cubes, a few at a time, in flour mixture to coat evenly. In a heavy skillet, over medium heat, heat oil. Sauté veal until well browned. Add more oil if necessary. Stir in onion, green pepper and paprika. Cover; simmer over low heat about 1 hour or until meat is tender. Stir mixture occasionally to prevent sticking; add a little water when necessary. When meat is tender, pour water into medium-size mixing bowl. Sprinkle nonfat dry milk and flour over surface of water. Beat with rotary beater just until blended. Stir into meat mixture. Place over medium heat; stir constantly, until sauce thickens. DO NOT BOIL. Add salt and pepper.

Al Malaikah Shrine Sets July 15 Date With Angels

California Angels Baseball Club has designated Monday, July 15, as Al Malaikah Shrine Temple Night at Anaheim Stadium.

Potentate Leo E. Anderson announced that uniformed marching units of Al Malaikah, led by Hal Mallinger, Commandant of Units, will stage a colorful parade in the stadium prior to the game between the Angels and the league-leading Detroit Tigers.

The pre-game Shrine pageantry, which includes a concert by the Al Malaikah Band, will begin at 7 p.m., according to Marshall Wilkings, general chairman.

Among the participants will be two notable Shriners who are members of both the California Angels organizations and Al Malaikah Temple. They are Gene Autry, chairman of the board of the California Angels, and Fred Haney, the club's general manager.

Also in attendance will be C. P. MacGregor, Imperial High Priest and Prophet, the Southland's highest ranking Shriner.

The California Angels and Al Malaikah Temple also cooperate in connection with the annual North-South Shrine football game in Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. The baseball club purchases 2,000 tickets to the game for distribution to underprivileged children.

Al Malaikah is the world's largest Shrine temple with a membership in excess of 28,000 and 66 affiliated Shrine clubs ranging from Bakersfield and Paso Robles on the north; Needles and Barstow on the east; Orange county on the south, and Catalina Island and Ventura on the west.

You May Be Driving With Illegal Lights

Many Californians are driving cars with illegal lights, not knowing they are violating the law.

"Most of the illegal lights are on sports cars, and are not part of the original equipment," according to Captain Vern F. Nicholson of the California Highway Patrol.

"Mail purchases account for most of these illegal driving and fog lamps, but some are on cars being sold as used vehicles or on cars originally registered in another state."

Some of the lights are illegal because they are designed for racing and, therefore, have a higher light output than is allowed by California law on passenger cars. Others are manufactured to European standards, which are different from American standards.

"Driving or fog lights bought from established dealers in California will probably be legal because parts suppliers know how to determine that their lights meet regulations," Captain Nicholson said. "If you think the lights on your car may be illegal, come in to the Patrol office and we will check them out."

Vacation Time Tips To Help You

New York (NAPS)--For the country's motoring millions, the season has come at last to see America first.

But before you hit the highways, be sure you know how to stay ahead of the game when you're behind the wheel. Naturally, you've checked the tires and filled the tank -- but that's only the beginning! To keep your highway holiday on the sunny side of the street, here's some vacation advice from the experts:

PREPARE FOR THE WORST

It's best to pack up for trouble, even if you've gotten the all-clear in a service-station safety checkup. Carry a stout jack, hubcap-prying tool and lug wrench. For after-sundown emergencies, take a flashlight and road flares. For mountain or desert driving, a tow cable, a small shovel and burlap bags to go under spinning rear wheels may get you out of a bad hole. And remember that winter comes early and stays late in the high passes. So keep a grip on icy roads with snow tires.

AVOID GETTING WANDER-LOST

Plotting and planning your course calls not only for a set of reliable highway maps but other up-to-date data. You don't have to load up with heavy reading. The compact Mobil Travel Guide to hotels and motels, restaurants, campgrounds, cafeterias and see-worthy sights speaks volumes. These series covers the country in seven volumes -- one for each geographical region. Gas and oil should run you between $40 and $50 per 1,000 miles. It has been estimated. Restaurant meals average about $140 a week for a family of four. Count on spending $12 to $18 a day for lodging and $5 a day for sight-seeing. Before hitting the road, knowledgeable travelers reckon these and other predictable costs -- and then add 10 per cent extra as a spending-safety margin.

CLOSE THE DOLLAR GAP

If you're a middle-income, you can still have a high old time on a low budget. Keep in mind that guest homes are less expensive than hotels or motels -- and camping is cheaper than either. And don't depend too heavily on getting a minimum-rate room. The least costly ones are most in demand and fill up first. It will help to reserve space in advance -- for popular resorts, as much as weeks ahead! For play-as-you-go savings, you can clip coupons from the Mobil Travel Guide. They save up to 50 per cent on tickets for a string of attractions ranging from a Colorado River cruise to a wax museum. As for food, you can pare costs without spoiling your fun by cafeteria dining -- or actually add enjoyment by picnicking.

CORRECT GLARING ERRORS

As both a road courtesy and for safety's sake, dim down the headlights for oncoming traffic. And remember that an overload in the rear will raise your car's front end and throw even the low beam too high. So distribute luggage to keep your car on an even keel.

BEAT THE SUN TO BED

If you're rolling along with out reservations, start hotel-hunting early enough to stop for the day before sundown.

Native Daughters Of Golden West Name Mrs. J.D. Dodge President

Mrs. Vincent J. Amalfitano acted as honorary chairman of the evening Tuesday night when Mrs. Margaret Kramp, Deputy Grand President, installed new officers of Ontario Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West, at the Ontario Woman's Club. Assisting her were the following members of her Rancho San Jose Parlor, Pomona: Mrs. Edwin Greenwald, president of Rancho San Jose Parlor, who acted as grand first vice - president, Mrs. Donald Carpenter, acting grand past-president, Mrs. Marion Sampley and Miss Nellie Weigle, acting grand trustees, Mrs. Alphonse B. Fages, acting grand marshal, Mrs. Louis Baiz, acting grand secretary and Mrs. Ethel Eberhardt, acting grand organist.

After being installed, Mrs. J.D. Dodge, who is starting her second term as president of Ontario Parlor, gave a short talk telling of her plans for the coming year. Some of these plans were: Placing an El Camino Real bell at the Chaffey Communities Cultural Center Museum on West 18th Street in Upland, increasing membership in Native Daughters, and Giving a subscription to the local library for "The California Herald", the official publication of the Native

Daughters of the Golden West, which contains many articles of California history, not available elsewhere.

Following the installation ceremony, members and guests enjoyed refreshments with Mrs. Loren Robinson in charge. The table was in green and white with an arrangement of flowers made by Mrs. Eva Sachs. Mrs. Sachs also made the corsages worn by the honorees.

The first completely automatic dishwasher was introduced by Hotpoint in 1937 -- the same year the company marked another major milestone by offering a complete line of matched appliances for the kitchen and home laundry.

Flowery Thing Reminds People

You hang this flat paper flower on your refrigerator door. It has petals marked—tissue, pick up shirts at laundry, get peanut butter, the car needs gas and all those other things easily forgotten on the homefront. Stick a pin in the petal that reminds. Make a note of the stickings before going out and, presto, you're not forgetting anything anymore. So says the inventor of this flowery thing that helps people to remember essentials.

ALLERGY SUFFERERS

Keeping your home as dust-free as possible will afford relief to allergy victims in your family. Other helpful aids include the replacement of dust-collecting cloth curtains with glass-fiber curtains and the use of low-pile or washable rugs. Finished interior walls of the home should help the allergy victim.

'She'-The Electronic Wonder Homes To Southland Homebuying

You name the place,
the price and the features
and SHE may turn you on

In fact, SHE may even change your whole life!

SHE is a unique service
now available to Southland home builders and home buyers which enables prospective buyers to Select Homes Electronically.

Harnessing the computer for the homebuilding industry was the result of a "brainstorming session of the marketing and sales personnel at Southern California Edison Company, according to an announcement this week
by E. A. Myers, manager of marketing.

Faced with the current lag in the home construction and sales market, how could a major utility provide new stimulus to both the building and selling of new homes?

The answer was to implicitly the problems of housebuying -- and SHE does just that.

DOES THE JOB
The service, which Edison now offers to any prospective buyer who wishes to live in an electric Medallion home
somewhere in Edison's 65,000-mile service territory, is quite simple:

Potential homebuyers are asked to describe their particular requirements for a new home in terms of location, price range, number of bedrooms, baths and size of family.

They do this on a house-hunters computer input

form which is being featured in Edison's newspaper advertising and also will soon be available at all Edison offices, Myers said. Completed forms are mailed to Edison's home selection service in downtown Los Angeles.

The giant General Electric computer already knows where new Medallion Homes are located throughout Southern California and, within minutes
SHE can feed back a complete listing of tract or customized homes in the price range and area desired. This "tailored" information on the computer printout is then mailed back to the potential buyer -- without charge.

COMPUTER CONCEPT
The computer concept of matching homes looking for a buyer and buyers
looking for a new home was first presented by Edison at the three-day
Pacific Coast Builders Conference in San Francisco early in June, Myers said.

Hundreds of major builders were attracted to the Edison booth by the

"SHE will work for you"
campaign which pointed out:

"SHE has some very stimulating ideas... You and SHE will turn each other on..."

For the few disbelieving builders, their skepticism turned to confidence when they submitted typical "test" inquiries and discovered while they stood watching that SHE would promptly provide a printout of all the builder's own homes he held for sale -- complete with many attractive details.

SHE has been in operation only a few weeks, Myers explained, but if the high rate of response
continues, he predicts:

"From the thousands of buyer requests to come,
SHE may be able to provide the building industry with significant "fallout" information which could have a profound effect on future home designing.

"SHE will be taking the pulse of the needs of the new home market -- special demands for specific areas. SHE can help determine whether homes should be designed for the young, the growing or retired families.

"With sufficient information, builders will heed and architects and designers may gain new trend ideas for the industry," Myers said.

Cairo was established as the capital of Egypt in 800 AD. It was called El-Kahira, which means "the Victorious."

An Ounce of Prevention

Editor's Note: This is one of a series of four features on different phases of home accident prevention. Information was provided by the First Aid Service of the Upland Chapter of the American Red Cross

Fires and Burns

Burns are the No. 2 home accident killer. Some 75 per cent of the fatalities are among children and the aged. It is estimated that for every fatality there are 100 serious injuries.

Fires and the injuries they cause result from careless smoking habits and use of matches; misuse of electrical equipment such as overloading of circuits, defective wiring and appliances; faulty heating equipment with defective controls, wiring or defective chimneys and flues; placement of combustible materials near unprotected heaters or open fires, and careless use of flammable cleaning materials.

Fire superheats the surrounding air and may result in the generation of toxic gases.

In addition to burns inflicted by the fire to the body surface, serious damage can be done to the respiratory system by the inhalation of superheated air.

Very serious burns can be fatal.

Short of this, with blisters and skin destruction there is the danger of infection. Shock can occur with severe burns. Sometimes permanent disability, scarring, long and costly hospitalization can result.

The Red Cross has issued the following suggestions for prevention of fires:

1. Don't smoke in bed, at any time.
2. Don't smoke near flammable liquids.
3. Discard cigarette butts in safe places, not in wastebaskets.
4. Keep matches and lighters away from children.
5. Have your heating equipment checked annually.
6. Don't place heaters, stoves, and smokepipes near combustible walls.
7. Never place combustibles, such as furniture, clothing, papers, near stoves, heaters, or fireplaces.
8. Clean your oven and broiler regularly.
9. Use proper size fuses in your switchbox.
10. Do not overload wiring.
11. Replace wornout electrical equipment.
12. Get rid of rubbish in attics, closets, basements, garages, and yards.
13. Store flammable fluids carefully.
14. Do not use kerosene or gasoline to start fires.
15. Keep fire extinguishers in good order and readily available.
16. Provide screen guards around fireplaces.

Your Red Cross chapter can tell you when its next first aid class starts. Call 982-3113

Buy Bonds where you work.

They do.

Feeding experiments using dogs have taught scientists many valuable things about the human diet—and the canine one as well! For a dog's life to be good, he too requires an adequate intake of vitamins and polyunsaturated fatty acids which many processed dog foods do not provide.

However, a tasty, easy-to-feed liquid supplement, Vitamol, assures your cat or dog of his daily dosage and prevents nutritional deficiencies.

According to researchers at Vitamol, deficiencies in Vitamins A, D and E are crucial and can affect muscular and nervous systems, impede normal bone growth, cause loss of hair, dryness of skin and scalliness, as well as interfere with reproduction and a healthy litter.

To learn about your pet's needs, write for a free brochure to Vitamol Corporation, P.O. Box 422, Caldwell, New Jersey.

Why do our servicemen buy U. S. Savings Bonds? Their reasons are the same as yours and mine: saving for the future, supporting freedom. And because they're fighting for freedom, too, maybe servicemen see the need more clearly than many of us: Buy Bonds. In more than one way, it makes you feel good.

New Freedom Shares

Now, when you join the Payroll Savings Plan or the Bond-a-Month Plan, you are eligible to purchase the new U. S. Savings Notes—Freedom Shares. Freedom Shares pay 4.74% when held to maturity of just 4 1/2 years (redeemable after one year), are available on a one-for-one basis with Savings Bonds. Get all the facts where you work or bank.
